

PRIVACY STATEMENT – OURRIS RESIDENTIAL HOMES LIMITED

Introduction

Ourris Residential Homes Limited respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal data. This privacy policy will inform you as to how we look after any personal data we collect from you and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

1. IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND WHO WE ARE

Purpose of this privacy policy

This privacy policy aims to give you information on how Ourris Residential Homes Limited collects and processes your personal data in relation to the operation of Anastasia Lodge Residential Care Home and Day Care Services for Older People (the “Home”).

It is important that you read this privacy policy together with any other privacy policy or fair processing policy we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy policy supplements other notices and privacy policies and is not intended to override them.

Controller

Ourris Residential Homes Limited is the controller and responsible for your personal data (referred to as: “the Company”, “we”, “us” or “our” in this privacy policy).

We have appointed a data protection officer who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this privacy policy. If you have any questions about this privacy policy, including any requests to exercise your legal rights, please contact the data protection officer using the details set out below.

Contact details

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or our privacy practices, please contact our data protection officer in the following ways:

20022023

Full name of legal entity: Ourris Residential Homes Limited

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

Changes to the privacy policy and your duty to inform us of changes

We keep our privacy policy under regular review. This version was last updated in August 2022. Historic versions can be obtained by contacting us.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

2. THE DATA WE COLLECT ABOUT YOU

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you (including sensitive data) which we have grouped together as follows:

- "Identity Data" includes first name, maiden name, last name, username or similar identifier, marital status, title, date of birth and gender.
- "Contact Data" includes invoicing address, email address and telephone numbers.
- "Life History Data" includes details of residents', day care attendees', or memory club members (referred to as "residents" in this policy and the term residents includes prospective residents) family and friends and carers and information in relation to their lives also includes photographs of residents, their relatives and friends.

- “Preference Data” includes information about your preferences as regards accommodation, food, care services in order to enable us to provide care to you in a way that best suits your needs.
- "Financial Data" includes bank account and payment card details.
- "Transaction Data" includes details about payments to and from you and other details of services we have provided to you.
- "Marketing and Communications Data" includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and our third parties and your communication preferences.
- “Security Data” includes identity and contact information records (including times of entry and departure of the Home), video and CCTV footage collected at or around the Home.
- “Special categories of personal data”

Some of the information which we collect about you may be “special categories of personal data”. Special categories of data require a greater level of protection. The special categories of personal data about you which we may collect include:

- information about your racial or ethnic origin;
- information about your religious beliefs;
- information about your sex life and sexual orientation;
- healthcare information, including:
 - any disabilities or special requirements which you may have;
 - medical records applying to the time you have spent with us;
 - your medical history;

- records required by care home regulations, like risk assessments, care plans and records of the care we provide to you; and
- details of your support and care needs.

3. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED?

We collect data from and about you including through:

- your contract with us (or your relative or friend's contract where you are named as guarantor or representative)
- your prospective contract with us where you are considering becoming a resident (or your relative or friend's contract if you are their representative)
- the contract or prospective contract of someone you care for if you are the carer of a resident or prospective resident in each of the above circumstances you may give us your identity, contact and financial data by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. As noted at paragraph 2 above, the term "resident" includes day care attendees and memory club members as well as people who are permanently or temporarily resident in the Home.

- your friends and relatives who provide us with information about you including where such friends or relatives are your representative or guarantor.
- your carers who provide us with information about you in relation to memory club activities or day care services.
- (in the case of a visitor to the Home) from you directly when you provide us with Identity Data and Contact Data when you visit the Home.
- (in the case of relatives and friends of a resident or carers of a resident) from the resident or directly from you particularly in relation to information for activities for residents such as life history books or other memory tools; where you provide information directly we will usually rely on your consent to use your information.

- (in the case of parties signing up for receipt of information about our Homes) from you directly when you provide us with identity data and contact data on requesting that we send you information about our Homes.
- your attorney or representative being parties authorised to take decisions in relation to your finances and or your care.
- healthcare professionals and officers in the local authority/social services department.

4. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to in order to perform a contract with you or to provide you with information you have requested.
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.
- Where it is necessary to provide you with healthcare services.

Generally, we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing residents' personal data although we will get residents', and friends', relatives' and carers', consent before sending any third party direct marketing communications to you via email or text message and where you sign up to request that we send you information about our Homes. You have the right to withdraw consent to any marketing at any time by contacting us.

Purposes for which we will use your personal data

We have set out below, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal basis we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful basis depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us if you need details about the specific lawful basis we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

Newsletters and information about the Home

We may use your Identity and Contact Data to send you information and newsletters about the Home and any events related to the Home.

Third-party marketing

We do not usually carry out any third party marketing but we will get your express opt-in consent before we share your personal data with any third party for marketing purposes.

Opting out

You can ask us (or third parties) to stop sending you marketing messages (or any newsletters for example) at any time by contacting us.

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

If you do not provide us with information which we need to consider your admission, we may not be able to offer you a place at our Home. Once already a resident, if you do not provide us with information which we request from time to time, we may not be able to provide you with the continuing care and support you need.

5. DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table above.

- Associated companies: We will share data with Ourris Properties Limited as this company provides services at our Homes and we may need to share that data where it is necessary for the provision of care to you and to enable us to provide services to you under your contract and particularly where a resident transfers from the Home to a Home operated by an associated company.
- External Third Parties being:
 - i) Healthcare providers including your GP, any hospital you attend and any other healthcare practitioners providing care to you where it is lawful and necessary to do so.
 - ii) Regulators and commissioners including the Care Quality Commission, any NHS Commissioners and any local authority responsible for funding your care together with any relevant safeguarding authorities and in certain circumstances the police or other law enforcement agencies, in each case where we are required by law to share such information.
 - iii) service providers who provide IT system administration and marketing services.
 - iv) professional advisers acting as processors or joint controllers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services.
 - v) HM Revenue & Customs, regulators and other authorities acting as processors or joint controllers based in the United Kingdom who require reporting of processing activities in certain circumstances.
- Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy policy.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

We do not transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area ("EEA").

7. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

8. DATA RETENTION

How long will you use my personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see 'your legal rights' below for further information.

In some circumstances we will anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

9. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data.

- 9.1 "Request access" to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- 9.2 "Request correction" of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
- 9.3 "Request erasure" of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- 9.4 "Object to processing" of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms.

You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

9.5 "Request restriction of processing" of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios:

- If you want us to establish the data's accuracy.
- Where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it.
- Where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.
- You have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

9.6 "Request the transfer" of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

9.7 "Withdraw consent at any time" where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it could take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.
